We Salute...

Those Who Serve Us At Home

This Is America

Soloist: Trey Luckie

Fire Fighters, EMS Personnel and those working in the Police and Sheriff Departments, please stand when your flag is presented. When the 911 flag is presented, those who work with the Red Cross along with ALL those in the medical profession are asked to stand.

Those Who Serve In Our Armed Forces

Salute to the Armed Forces

We ask that all veterans and people currently serving in our Armed Forces please stand when your branch's song and flag are presented.

The Families of Those Who Serve

Lord, We Hear You Calling

We ask that all those who have had or currently have family members who serve in the military, please stand during this song.

A Hero for Today

Soloist: Amanda Roberts

Please stand when the flag representing your Wartime service is presented. Also, if you, or a family member was a MIA or POW, please stand when the POW/MIA flag is presented.

Our Service of Worship has ended.
Our Worship through Service begins.

Sanctuary Flowers

The flowers in the Sanctuary today are dedicated to the glory of God and placed in loving memory of Richard Coxen and all Veterans by his wife Shirley and his children in remembrance of his 26 years of military service and his love for his country.

Poppies

The poppies this morning are donated by Loretta Mayo Hodges in Honor of her Great, Great, Great, Great Grandfather Captain William Corman (1756-1821), who holds the distinction of having served in General George Washington's Commander-in-Chief's Guard from the date of the unit's creation in 1777 until it was disbanded in 1783 at the end of the American Revolutionary War.
