Are You Being Called to Refugee Ministry? Join the Q & A Information Meeting on Monday, January 30, 6:00-7:00 pm

The Jay Inn

Over the past several months I have been meeting with a group of people in our community like Llovd Stembridge, Jonathan Burch, Hallock Martin, and Philip Jay. discussing the possibility of providing a home here in Fitzgerald for a refugee family from Afghanistan. These are Afghans who assisted the American military during the long war in Afghanistan, and because of their assistance, they had to flee their home country. Their ability to assist also means that at least one member of the family speaks English. At least three Afghan refugee families are living in Tifton and doing rather well.

We are interested in learning how many people in our community are willing to assist a refugee family. Jesus himself spent his early life as a refugee. And the biblical mandate is clear with over 20 scriptural references in its call to welcome the stranger and those sojourning from another country. We believe we will need 12-15 people to help a new family adjust to life in a new community. If you cannot give your time, but would like to contribute money, a 401c3 is being set up for this purpose. Housing has already been secured. We may also have a car that can be used.

If you feel God might be leading you to serve in a ministry like this, join us for a Q&A session on Monday, January 30, 6:00-7:00 pm at the Jay Inn (309 South Lee Street, Fitzgerald). We look forward to helping those who risked their lives to help our country.

Dear Family of Faith: We want to hear from you. As a church we desire to be faithful to God's calling in Scripture and the Spirit's leading among us as we seek to worship God, follow Jesus, grow in Christlikeness, and serve our community and the world in Christ's name. Are there any new or different ways you believe the Spirit of God may be leading us in this calling? Does worship enable you to offer yourself to God? What can we do to better nurture your relationship with God and help you grow in Christlikeness? What opportunities to serve would you like to have available? How can we improve? We want to know how you feel about how we are doing across all ministries, practices, areas, phases, and aspects of our church as we seek to live together as the Body of Christ. We are also working to update staff job descriptions and perform staff evaluations that have been neglected in recent years. We would appreciate your help in doing so. In order to be read, we do require that your name be attached to any and all comments. We don't want this to be a venting session, but a time of prayerful discernment as we seek to be God's faithful people and build up the Body of Christ. These prayerful compliments, concerns, and comments can be submitted by January 31 to the church office by way of a box labeled "Feedback" in the Narthex on Sundays, or mailed to:
